

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

OPINION AND ORDER

13-cv-538-wmc

DARREN DAVID MELLUM, DAVID W.
AND BARBARA E. MELLUM, and
CATERPILLAR FINANCIAL SERVICES,
CORP.,

Defendants.

On February 12, 2014, the clerk of court entered default against defendants Darren David Mellum, David W. Mellum, Barbara E. Mellum, and Caterpillar Financial Services Corp. pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 55(a). (Dkt. #9.) Before the court is plaintiff the United States of America's motion for default judgment against defendants and a declaration in support of the motion, both dated March 7, 2014. (Dkt. ##10-11.) Also before the court is plaintiff's proposed judgment (dkt. #14) and proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law (dkt. #15), both submitted April 7, 2014. On April 9, 2014, the court held a hearing on plaintiff's motion for default, at which defendants again failed to appear or otherwise participate.

Plaintiff seeks to foreclose on its security interest in all farm products, crops, livestock and farm equipment owned by defendant Darren David Mellum, for his failure to make payments due under three promissory notes. Where default has been entered against the defendant, such as here, the court accepts as true all of the factual allegations in the complaint, except those relating to damages. In re Catt, 368 F.3d 789, 793 (7th Cir. 2004).

While plaintiff has submitted a proposed judgment and findings of fact and conclusions of law setting forth damages and the property in which it has as security interest, those submissions are not included as part of a declaration or some other submission proving up damages. Moreover, while the motion for default judgment was served on defendants, given the timing of the filing of plaintiff's proposed judgment and findings of facts and conclusions of law -- two days before the hearing -- and service on defendants -- one day before the hearing -- it would be unfair to have required a response even if properly documented.

Accordingly, as explained during the hearing, the court will enter a partial default judgment, awarding plaintiff possession of the property listed in Attachment B to its proposed judgment to the extent identified in Attachment D to the Complaint, and admitted by virtue of defendant's default, as well as allowing for sale of that property with the proceeds to be deposited into this court pending further order. (Compare Compl., Attachment D (dkt. #1-4) pp.3-5, with Pl.'s Proposed Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law, Attachment B (dkt. #15-2).) Plaintiff may also submit supplemental factual evidence by declaration, affidavit or other acceptable form that establishes: (1) the amount due and owing to plaintiff; and (2) defendants' ownership of the five additional items of property listed on Attachment B but not included in the Attachment D to the Complaint.

Provided plaintiff makes the necessary showing, the court anticipates entering a final judgment without the need of another hearing, absent timely objection by defendants, that awards plaintiff damages, awards plaintiff possession of the remaining property items and allows for sale of those items, and allows plaintiff to remove the sales proceeds from this court (to the extent that they have been deposited) to satisfy its damages award.
